

NEH Summer Institute for University Professors

“The Alhambra and Spain’s Islamic Past”

hosted in Granada by the LAAC (EEA-CSIC)

Schedule of public lectures

All lectures will be delivered in English and held in the Carmen de la Victoria, Sala de Actos.

Thursday, June 18 at 6:00-7:20pm

Jerrilynn D. Dodds, “Mudejar: Beyond Religion and Identity.”

(The event will end before the LAAC-sponsored lecture at 7:30pm at the Escuela de Estudios Árabes: Miguel Ángel Tabales Rodríguez, “La construcción del primitivo alcázar de Sevilla: nuevos datos sobre el proceso de obra, materiales y técnicas.”)

Friday, June 19 at 6:30-8:00pm

D. Fairchild Ruggles, “Materiality and Originality: The Alhambra as Historic Trace.”

Wednesday, June 24 at 6:30-8:00pm

Richard Kagan, “Preserving the Past: Tourism, Vega-Inclán and the Concept of National Patrimony in 19th-20th Century Spain.”

Monday, June 29 at 6:00-7:30pm

Oscar E. Vázquez, “Charging the Line: Between History and Orientalism in Spanish Painting.”

Monday, July 6 at 6:00-7:30pm

Eric Calderwood, “Remembering al-Andalus in Modern Spain: Spain's Muslim Past and the Problem of Spain's National Identity.”

---

The organizers of the NEH Summer Institute would like thank the LAAC, the Carmen de la Victoria of the Universidad de Granada, and the Patronato de la Alhambra for organizational support in Granada.